Essence of Joy Alumni Singers Present Workshop and Concert at Dauphin UMC

MIDDLETOWN, Pa. (February 12, 2011) / The Essence of Joy Alumni Singers (EOJAS) is pleased to announce a performances at Dauphin United Methodist Church in Mobile, AL. The choir will present a concert on Sunday March 20th, at 2PM at Dauphin UMC, 1507 Dauphin St. in Mobile. A free-will offering will be collected in lieu of tickets.

EOJAS will also present a workshop on music of the African-American Tradition with Dr. Anthony T. Leach as main presenter from 10AM to Noon on March 19th, also at the Dauphin UMC. “We are simply thrilled to present a workshop and concert in Mobile. We always appreciate the opportunity to share our musical experiences with new communities,” said Joshua Edwards, EOJAS President. “These workshops provide us with a unique opportunity to not only present our music but also learn from interactions with other musicians.” Please register by contacting John Ricketts at jricketts@dauphinwayumc.org.

For additional information, please visit www.eojas.org. The choir would be happy to accommodate any requests for interviews

About The Essence of Joy Alumni Singers:

Founded in 2005 and comprised of alumni from Pennsylvania State University's Essence of Joy Choir, the Essence of Joy Alumni Singers perform sacred and secular music from the African and African-American tradition in an effort to entertain, inspire, affirm and unify the worldwide community. Under the artistic direction of Dr. Anthony T. Leach, the group has performed extensively in the United States, Europe, and the Caribbean. The choir is a non-profit corporation registered in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and a tax exempt organization as defined in section 501(c)(3) of the IRS Tax Code.
